Who is a Volunteer and what is Volunteering?

Volunteer is a person who freely offer his/her time, efforts, knowledge and skills to help other people and the environment.

Volunteering is an unpaid, consent and free-will activities doing for the good of society.

*«What is the essence of life?
To serve others and to do good»
Aristotle*

If somebody spend his time,
why does not he expect any reward?

Firstly an individual thinks over which
problems are more important for him, how he can help, what
resources he can offer.
In such way he clarify
the own goals.

Although a volunteer works
without a payment, however
he get a nonfinancial incentive.

Every day we faced with plenty of problems. How can we lend a hand to change the situation?

It is important for an organization to find out why an individual makes a decision to be a volunteer? A questionnaire of volunteer and an informal interview are a good way to get acquainted and to find out more about a potential volunteer.

Why people want to be volunteers?

Values and principles of volunteering

Personal

- Own free will
- Responsibility
- Personal development
- ...

Thematic

- Non-discrimination
- Activism
- Mobilisation of LGBT community
- ...

Organizational

- Team work
- Mutual respect
- ...

The values and principles of an organization are included into the Volunteers Policy.

Why organization needs a volunteers?

Every organization should identify reasons, why it is going to involve volunteers.

There are a wide number of tasks for volunteers: from simple unqualified duties (like sticking on stamps or copying docs), to promotion of an organization or advisory and expert activities.

Potential volunteering tasks in LGBT NGOs:

- Provision the HIV/AIDS and male health related services
- Advocacy and public awareness events to raise attention to problems of the LGBT community
- Capacity building of the Organization

The list of tasks can be specified and extended depending on the strategic objectives of the organization.

Provision the services related to HIV/AIDS and male health

- Informing, motivating and involving clients to the Organization's programs
- Consulting on sexual health, infectious diseases prevention and other topics
- Organizing and facilitating the self-help groups for LGBT and other activities of mutual support
- Other

Advocacy and public awareness events to raise attention to problems of the LGBT community

- Participating in public events and informational campaigns on HIV/AIDS, advocacy, improvement the access of gay, bisexual and other men who have sex with men, transgender people to health services
- Facilitating discussions and social networks groups, mailing lists on HIV/AIDS, male health and other issues related to the LGBT community.
- Participating as recruiters, interviewers, analytics etc. in research, studies on male health, needs of the LGBT community and other issues

- Other

Management of volunteering

Coordinator / Manager

involving and recruiting of volunteers

induction and training

supervision and evaluation of volunteer's input

What expenses does an organization bear to manage volunteers?

There is a wrong opinion that an organization pay nothing to volunteers, but just use their free-of-charge job.

However an organization has significant in-kind and at times financial expenses related to volunteers' work:

- Members of staff who manages volunteers
- Training
- Work place
- Other expenses

A Volunteer's Coordinator/ Manager

is a member of staff who is in charge of overall management of volunteering, which include :

- Assessing and planning the needs of Organization in volunteers (which activities, how many tasks, terms)
- Involving potential volunteers (informing, searching, creating a database of contacts and interests)
- Recruiting volunteers according the Organization's needs
- Conducting an induction session and training
- Giving assignments and nominating the members of staff for supervision
- Providing supervision
- Evaluating volunteers' work and providing feedback.

Needs assessment and planning:

Ask all staff to make a list of tasks and functions which could be assign to volunteers.

- What tasks are you going to set for volunteers?
- How often? How many volunteers do you need?
- What skills/ competences should volunteers have?

Bear in mind, volunteers do not replace staff and not do its job! Volunteers just provide support and help.

Looking for volunteers

Why a volunteer should choose your organization?

How a potential volunteer get know about your organization?

Inform potential volunteers through various means of communication:

- Web-site
- Social networks
